DEDICATION

To our parents whose untiring efforts have seen us through school, we the Senior Class of 1950 dedicate this book. We are very proud of our parents, as we hope they may be proud of us. Their interest and encouragement have spurred us on to attain our goal. We hope the dedication of this O'Citian will show them in a small measure, our appreciation of all that they have done for us.

Congratulations and best wishes to the members of this Senior Class.

I encourage you to continue your educational development to the maximum so you may contribute to society your fullest share of service.

R. G. Brand
County Superintendent

Now that we are nearing the end of the first half of this great century, it would seem appropriate to begin thinking of the latter half. Just as did the influence of our Greek forbearers, the influence of the class of 1950 will be greater after the class is disbanded. We look for the members of the class to have a great effect on the affairs of the later part of the twentieth century.

May we at the school have the opportunity to feel pride in your accomplishments. We wish you courage and strength to do the job you are undertaking.

Mark B. Gens
Superintendent

Board of Education

These are the men who are the unseen spokes in our great wheel of education. In their hands lies the responsibility of providing the tools for our education. As the unseen head of our school, they secure the leaders whom we are in contact with each day. To them goes our appreciation for what they have done for us.

The Teachers "If"

If you can take your dreams into the classroom,
And always make them part of each day's work--
If you can face the countless petty problems
Nor turn from them nor ever try to shirk--
If you can live so that the child you work with
Deep in his heart knows you to be a man--
If you can take "I can't" from out his language
And put in place a vigorous "I can"--
If you can take Love with you to the classroom,
And yet on Firmness never shut the door--
If you can teach a child the love of Nature
So that he helps himself to all her store--
If you can teach him life is what we make it,
That he himself can be his only bar--
If you can tell him something of the heavens,
Of something of the wonder of a star--
If you, with simple bits of truth and honor,
His better self occasionally reach--
And yet not overdo nor have him dub you
As one who is inclined to ever preach--
If you impart to him a bit of liking
For all the wondrous things we find in print--
Yet have him understand that to be happy,
Play, exercise, fresh air he must not stint--
If you can give of all the best that's in you,
And in the giving always happy be--
If you can find the good that's hidden somewhere
Deep in the heart of every child you see--
If you can do these things and all the others
That teachers everywhere do every day--
You're in the work that you were surely meant for;
Take hold of it! Know it's your place and stay!

Class History

On a September morning in 1946 thirty-one would-be runners decided to start the long preparation for the Marathon race to be held in 1950. As our captain we had Shirley Brand, and her co-captains were Patsy Rickard, Lola Eibling, and Pat Krugh. Our running team was trained by Mr. West. As part of our physical training we had a skating party.

At the start of our second year we chose as captain Shirley Brand and as co-captains, Jay Dee Putman, Jack Priddy, Max Prichard, and Lola Eibling. As a feminine trainer we chose Mrs. Wurster.

Deciding that roller skating would give us some of the needed exercise, we planned another skating party.

To start the fund we would need in 1949 and 1950, we had a bake sale, and sold "forget-me-nots."

In the third lap of our preparation we chose as our captain, Maynard George. His co-captains were Lola Eibling, Phyllis Wallace, and Betty Brunni. Our trainer this year was Miss Severn. This year we also had another bake sale, sold "forget-me-nots" and had concessions to make our fund grow. We also gave a play, Just Ducky which aided our financial situation. In the spring we gave a big party for the "Winners of '49."

Several of our team thought the preparation too difficult and gave up. However, we gained one when Pat Brubaker came to join us. Now with twenty members of our team, we were ready for the Marathon of 1950. We had Corinthians, Athenians, Trojans, and Spartans to make a well-balanced and successful team.

As our trainer we had Mr. Cress, and Jay Dee Putman as captain. His co-captains were Max Prichard, Lola Mae Eibling, and Virginia Hertel. Patsy Rickard and Shirley Brand published a book on our activities and our successors.

To help with our fund, we had two bake sales, a cookie sale, a cake raffle, a ham raffle, sold "forget-me-nots," concessions, movies, and sold magazine subscriptions.

After much hard work we had won the race, In honor of the victory, our competitors gave us a banquet. As one of the awards of our labor, we won a trip to Washington, D.C.

The Last Will and Testament

We the graduating class of nineteen-hundred and fifty, being of sound minds (?), weary hands, and tired feet, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the underclassmen who follow our footsteps, we leave fond memories of many good times.

These personal items are to be disposed of as follows:

I, Bonnie Bigham, do hereby will my basketball ability to Irene Merkle.

I, Shirley Jo Brand, do hereby will my position as Cheerleader to Darlene Davis and my natural curly hair to "Red" Clouse so he won't have to have another Toni.

I, Claude Patrick Brubaker, do hereby will my table in seventh period study hall to Wally Smith and Christine Pollack, but wish to keep Joanne myself.

I, Betty Brunni, do hereby will my long curly hair to anyone who can keep it clean.

I, Elizabeth Croy, do hereby will my dramatic ability to Betty Gish and my nickname "Lizzy" to anyone who is silly enough to want it.

I, Lois Custer, do hereby will my trim figure to Darlene Davis and my ability to play solo clarinet to anyone who can stand those shrill notes.

I, David Doan, do hereby will my ability to read sports magazines in chemistry class to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Robert Eber, do hereby will my height to Max Kohn so he can play basketball.

I, Lola Eibling, do hereby will my Senior and Y-Teen Secretary books to anyone who wants the practice for a future career.

I, Maynard George, being of sound body and mind, do hereby will my nickname "Gorgeous George" to anyone who can keep up the good work.

I, Virginia Hertel, do hereby will my dimples to Helen Shaw and my old treasury books to Janie Stemen.

I, Virginia Hurless, do hereby will my dark hair to Joanne Wise and my position as drum major to one of the majorettes.

I, Helen Long, do hereby will my American Government book to any Junior who can get passing grades in it next year.

I, Art McConn, do hereby will my well-trained hair to Mr. Fleck.

I, Max Prichard, do hereby will my chemistry equipment to anyone who tries to struggle through chemistry.

I, Jay Putman, do hereby will my ability to distill water in chemistry class to Max Kohn and the slightly used ammonia bottle to anyone that wants to get rid of a cold.

I, Donna Krugh, do hereby will my ability to sing to Dorothy Witten, but wish to put a priority on that certain lad from Lima.

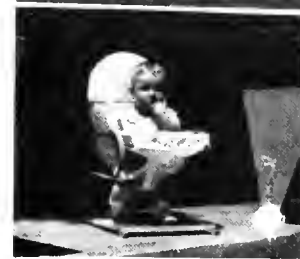

I, Pat Krugh, do hereby will my ability to get along with red-heads to Sharon Meeker.

I, Patsy Rickard, do hereby will my position as annual editor to Larry Kohn and my list of nicknames to anyone who can keep them all.

I, Phyllis Ann Wallace, do hereby will the presidency of the Y-Teens to anyone who would care to run around in circles during their Senior year, and my ability (?) to play a trombone to Rollie Custer with hopes that he'll make good use of it.

Having disposed of the above items we declare this the end of our Last Will and Testament.

In the year 1947, 28 bright, studious, serious students entered high school. Dick Busch and Gale Smith guided us through our first year of higher education with the help of Miss Dull, our sponsor.

At the beginning of our 2nd year of serious study, there were only 20 students. This year our pilots were Loma Agler, Pres.; Dick Points, Vice Pres.; and Mrs. Wurster, our sponsor. We chose our class colors, white and gold, and our class flower, the yellow rose. We had a bowling party and you should have heard the nicknames which developed from this. Much to our happiness, our treasury increased, also.

Now, in our third year, we have really risen to higher education. You never saw a more studious bunch of 20 Juniors. Our leaders is Charles Cramer with Gale Smith, Jane Ann Stemen, Jeanette Roller, Loma Agler, Opal Taylor as helpers. On Oct. 25th, we had our class play, "I Wouldn't Know!" To Miss Severn, our sponsor, went the honor of directing this play. It was quite a success. A couple of weeks later, we were sporting new class rings. The event which will top off our year is a successful prom. This we'll achieve even if it does mean a lot of hard work.

Did you know us then? We were happy go lucky eighth graders. There were 25 of us, but only 14 have gone on to graduation. Floyd Spitler, Betty Mottinger, Melvin Agler, and Vivian Busch felt that matrimony was for them. Jack Priddy, Ralph Schaadt, and Bob Stratton left our fair school to attend Van Wert, and Lima Central respectively. Mary Carr and Marcella Stetler felt that they were able to work their own way, so they left us also.

This was the year that we graduated for the first time. A graduation exercise for the eighth grade was held. We were the first class to have an eighth grade graduation exercise. We even received diplomas. These were only fake though. We didn't receive the real ones until we had taken our semester exam.

This ended our happy years in the grades.

Y-Teens

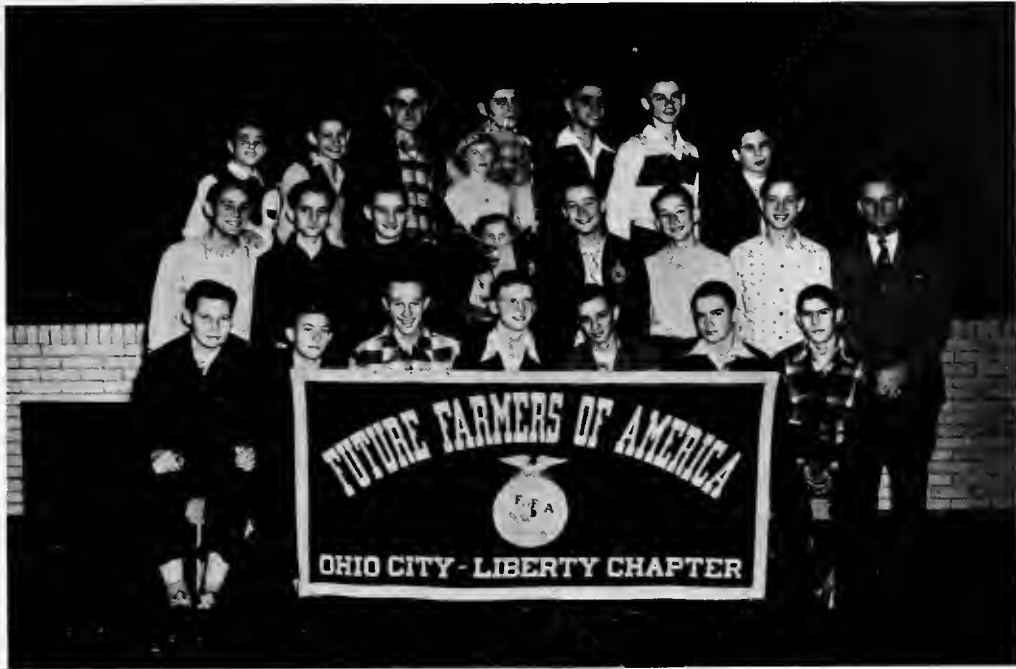

This year we are called the "Touring Teens." Each meeting we are at a different place and by the end of the year, we will have traveled around the world. The meetings are planned around the country that we are in, such as; while in Paris, we studied fashions and grooming. There are 38 members in the club and each one has a secret pal whom we call our "Touring Sisters." Our officers are named after the ways in which we travel from place to place. Our President, "The Rocket," is none other than Phyllis Wallace; the Vice President is our own Loma Agler and so we call her "The Pullman;" "The Skywriter Plane" is Lola Eibling, Secretary; our "Armored Car," who keeps our money safe is Patty Krugh; the Pianist, Shirley Brand, is the "Hansom." "The Station Wagon" is our Recreation Leader, Virginia Hurless; Helen Shaw, the Song Leader is called the "Jitney;" Sergeant-at-Arms is our little Rosalyn Clouse, better known as the "Police Car." The News Reporter, Joanne Wise, is the "Steam Engine;" Patsy Rickard, whom we call the "Blimp" is the Program Chairman. Our Advisor, who helps us over bumps, is Miss Joyce Severn, and we call her the "Battleship." Our Mother Advisor, the "Tug," is Mrs. Wilbur Wise.

We have given the first three grades a Christmas party, put a Christmas tree on the second floor, and went caroling through and around Ohio City.

Our Teen Queen and King of 1950 is Phyllis Wallace and Jim Rickard. They were crowned at the Fall Festival, which was put on by the Y-Teens.

We hope that we have done our best in honoring God our country, and our community; in helping other girls and have been in all ways a loyal, true member of the Y-Teens.

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers of America is the national organization of boys studying vocational agriculture.

This organization strives to develop leadership, sportsmanship, cooperation, community service, thrift, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship and patriotism.

The Ohio City Chapter was chartered in 1941 under the guidance of Mr. Lloyd Smith. There wasn't any F.F.A. in 1943 or 1944 due to lack of an instructor. Mr. Henry C. Prior became instructor in 1945.

In 1946 the chapter won gold medal at the parliamentary procedure contest and placed third in the Little International Livestock Judging.

In 1947 we won silver medal in parliamentary procedure and also that year held the first annual Parent and Son Banquet.

In 1948 we again won silver medal in Parliamentary Procedure and also held our second annual Banquet. The same year we were honored by having two State Farmers elected from our chapter, Dallas M. High and Bob Galloway. Dallas was then also elected as the South West Sectional Vice President of the Ohio Association of Future Farmers.

In 1949 our third annual Parent and Son Banquet was held March 4th and the Chapter won Gold Medal in Parliamentary Procedure.

Dallas High a 1949 graduate was elected President of the Future Farmers of Ohio in June 1949.

Our advisor this year is Mr. Henry C. Prior. The officery of the Chapter are: President, Charles Cramer; Vice President, Maynard George; Secretary, Deloyd Rickard; Treasurer, Rex Hurless; Reporter, Robert Mosier; and Sentinel, Wally Smith.

F.H.A.

The Ohio City F.H.A. was organized in 1946 under the capable leadership of Miss Vera Dull. The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in Junior and senior high schools of the United States and Territories. Vocational Home Economics girls make up this organization. The requirement for membership is the completion of one semester of Home Economics. Our colors are red and white; our flower is the red rose and our motto is "Toward New Horizons."

Chorus

The chorus is divided into three separate branches: Mixed Chorus, Girls' Glee Club, and Boys' Glee Club.

Two of the main highlights of the year were the Vocal County Music Festival which was held here at Ohio City-Liberty School March 24 and the all girl operetta "Big Day" which was given March 7 under the direction of Mrs. Wurster.

The cast of character in this operetta was as follows:

Mrs. DeSmyth . . .	Jeamette Roller
Lizette	Donna Krugh
Mrs. O'Malley	Helen Shaw
Harlequin	Jane Ann Stemen
Columbine.	Sharon Meeker
Jane Jackson.	Barbara Cowgill
Miss Lilly.	Phyllis Wallace
Anna	Shirley Brand
Mrs. A. Turney.	Patsy Rickard
Grace	Dorothy Witten
Caroline	Lois Custer

Around sixty girls participated in the choruses which consisted of Mop Women, Wash Women, Irish Maids, Joan of Arc Maids, Dutch Maids, Clowns, Dancers, and others.

Along with the Festival and operetta the chorus participated in the district contests held at Ada.

Band

The Ohio City Liberty Band, under the capable direction of Mrs. Helen Wurster, has been very active since school started. During the basketball season the band performed between the halves of the game.

The organization participated in many civic parades: Fall Festival at Van Wert, in which they were awarded second place, and the Callithumpian Parade at Decatur. With over forty members, Mrs. Wurster plans to enter the band in the District Contest, as well as the county music festival.

Under the direction of the Drum Majorette, Virginia Hurless and the majorettes, the appearance of the band added greatly to the enjoyment of the Ohio City Liberty High School fans.

The officers for the year, are as follows: President, Shirley Brand; Vice President, Betty Brunni; Secretary, Helen Shaw; Treasurer, Barbara Cowgill; News Reporter, Bob Brand; and Librarians, Marcia Krugh and Conne Straw.

Helen: Don't Betty make you mad?

Lois: Why, what's wrong now?

Helen: Well, here we are trying to make some money for this charity bazaar, by selling kisses at a dollar apiece and out there stands Betty bootleggin' them in the moonlight.

Mr. Cress: Pat, who was Anne Boleyn?

Pat B: Why she was a flat iron.

Mr. Cress: What makes you think so?

Pat: It says so in the book.

Mr. Cress: What book?

Pat: History book.

Mr. Cress; Let me see.

Pat: See, it says Henry the VIII pressed his suit with Anne Boleyn.

Jay: My girl asked me to kiss her on either side of her cheeks last night.

Dave: Well, which one did you kiss?

Jay: I hesitated a long time between them.
